FCML Resumes Programs for Fall

FCML kicked off its fall programming on Tuesday, August 30 with a returning afterschool favorite, Crafternoon. Crafternoon invites school-aged kids to get creative with a fun craft. Led by Youth Programmer, Alana Lovelace, kids created yarn art by gluing colorful yarn pieces to a canvas to make a design. Pictured at right, Kellan Hodges and Ella Grace Thompson show off their creations.

Preschool programming resumed on Thursday, September 1 with a new addition to the FCML calendar, Little Readers Storytime. Led by Assistant Director Jessica Vaughn, Little Readers combines books, music, movement, and activities for a fun library experience for kids ages 0-5. Pictured at left, Jessica reads Creepy Pair of Underwear as part of a monsters themed Little Readers.

Preschool and afterschool programs continue through December. For more information on programs and events visit www.fcml.org.

Eating Smart, Being Active Program To Be Held at FCML

The Alabama Cooperative Extension will hold Eating Smart, Being Active at FCML this fall. Eating Smart, Being Active is a healthy eating and active living program that focuses on helping adults make healthier choices for themselves and their children while stretching food dollars. Kristi Baggett, a Nutrition Educator for Fayette and Lamar counties, will present the dialogue-based and hands-on program.

EATING SMART
BEING ACTIVE

The program will be held on Tuesdays at 10:30 AM in the Collins Junior Room. It will run from September 20 through October 25. More information on the program can be found by visiting FCML or emailing Kristi Baggett at kjb0063@auburn.edu.
