Trade Rack Collection Offers Different Library Experience

Tucked away in the hallway between the Collins Junior Room and FCML's staff offices, you will find a "hidden" collection. The Trade Rack contains hundreds of mass market paperbacks divided into four sections--Harlequin Romance, Inspirational Romance, General Fiction, and Western Fiction. This collection is unique—you do not need a library card to use it!

To borrow from the Trade Rack, simply trade off books. Have a few paperbacks you've already read at home gathering dust? Bring them to the Trade Rack. Leave your books at the front desk and go pull brand new (to you) books from the Rack. Repeat as many times as you want! Don't have a paperback to start trading with? No worries! Grab your first one on us and get started trading today!
